

Shri Vile Parle Kelavani Mandal's
C.N.M. School & N.D. Parekh Pre –Primary School

Subject: GLOBAL OUTLOOK – STD 3 TOPIC: Shine, Shine Our Utensils

	Novice	Apprentice	Master	Expert
Activity Engagement AND Research Work	Student struggled to participate and tried to be engaged in the activity.	Student was attempting to be engaged in the activity.	Student moderately participated and engaged in all activities.	Student was highly engaged and participated in all activities enthusiastically.
	Student collected data which was irrelevant to the topic and was unorganized and unstructured.	Student made a feeble attempt to collect the data relevant to the topic.	Student fairly collected data relevant to the topic and was fairly organized and structured.	Student collected data relevant to the topic and was well- organized and structured.
Experimentation AND Verbal Discussion and Participation	Student struggled with the experiment and was able to acquire minimum information to solve the problem.	Student was less observant and was attempting to solve the problem through experimentation.	Student was observant and sought some information to solve the problem through experimentation.	Student was highly observant and sought relevant information to solve the problem through experimentation.
	Student could use simple sentences to discuss the topic.	Student was able to provide minimum information on topic with simple evidences.	Student was able to present most of the information with clear speech on the topic.	Student was able to present a clear, smooth flowing explanation on the topic with thorough evidences.
Street play	Student was not clear in his speech and was unable to use voice intonation.	Student was not very clear in his speech and tried to use voice intonation.	Student was loud and clear while presenting and used moderate voice intonation.	Student was confident and spoke clearly and loudly while presenting, using voice intonation and expression.
Journal Work AND Reflection Report	Journal entries are slightly organized.	The journal is moderately organized and entries are moderately clear.	The journal is mainly organized.	The journal is extremely organized and entries are perfect.
	Student struggled to reflect thoughts in simple words or sentences.	Student was able to reflect his/her thoughts in simple connected text.	Student was able to express his/her thoughts in well-structured text at some length.	Student was able to reflect his/her thoughts clearly and smooth-flowing text in an appropriate style.